Christmas Exercises at Episcopal Church.—Gift to Rector.

The annual Christmas tree and exercises of St. John the Baptist Episcopal church, in connection with the Sunday school, were held on Christmas eve. A large number of children, parents and friends were present, the vestry being filled to capacity and extra seats having been placed in every available spot. The Sunday school has now reached its highest mark. A splendid program was prepared by Mrs. Anderson and Miss Gladys Raycraft. Rev. W. J. M. Beattie, the rector, presided and in his opening remarks he congratulated W. J. Edwards, the superintendent of the school, on the splendid success which attended his efforts as superintendent and he also spoke of the good work all the teachers had done, and he expressed the hope that they would still go on to greater things.

The following was the program carried out: Song, Sunday school; recitation, Eunice Geake; recitation, Florence Earle; "Come All Ye Faithful," choir; recitation, Beatrice Sutor; quartet, "The Birthday Bells of Our King"; recitation, William Littlewood; dialogue, two girls; recitation, Harold McLeod; song, Elsie Rayercraft; recitation, Robert Littlewood; dialogue, five boys; recitation, Thomas Bryant; recitation, Gladys Watson; duet, two boys; recitation, Joseph Littlewood; recitation, Elsie McLeod; dialogue, four girls; recitation, Randall Sutor; recitation, Irene Miller; recitation, Charles Nevins; dialogue, two girls; recitation, Frances Watson; "All Sorts of Children," four girls; song, choir.

After the program the rector appointed Messrs. Edwards, McLaughlin, Littlewood and Bowerman to distribute the gifts. Every child was remembered, as well as some of the parents and elder people. The entertainment was a marked success in every way. At the close Donald Green presented the rector a purse of $65.50 in the name of the congregation as a token of their appreciation of his work among them during the past year. The rector replied feelingly to the gift.

A Card of Thanks

We wish to extend our sincere thanks to Barre and vicinity for the very liberal patronage given us during the Christmas month, making it thus far the best in our almost 15 years' experience in the shoe business.

This consideration has been fully appreciated, we assure you, and we ask for a continuation of these favors during the future.

We shall spare no pains to continue improving our service, wherever possible, and keep this store the leading shoe store of this locality.

For your present needs, we would suggest RUBBERS OF OUR QUALITY for all members of the family. Rubbers prevent colds and the doctor's bills.

Dr. and Mrs. William McFarland have returned after a week's visit in Boston.

To-night and Tuesday at the opera house the Nellie Gill Players return to Barre after an absence of eight months with three of the strongest plays in their repertoire. To-night and Tuesday they will present an elaborate production of Paul Armstrong's wonderfully vivid and interesting play, "The Deep Purple."

This is the play which made Mr. Armstrong famous as a playwright, and it presents to its auditors the methods employed in working the famous "Indiana game" on its unsuspecting victims. There is an abundance of good jokes, comedy and melodrama enough to keep everyone interested from start to finish. Special scenery for this play is carried by the company and a first-class performance is assured.—adv.
